

Paul Fourshee
Kentucky Arts Council Board
Cadiz

Paul Fourshee is partner and general manager of Fourshee Building Supply, a Cadiz-based commercial and residential contract and supply firm. As manager, he has oversight of Fourshee Building Supply, Fourshee Construction and Fourshee Heating and Air.

Fourshee currently serves as vice chair of the Cadiz Renaissance Program executive board. He began his public involvement in the arts in 1981, serving as treasurer on the Southern Kentucky Independent Theatre Inc. board. He has also directed and performed with numerous community theater groups in western Kentucky and Tennessee for more than 25 years and has designed and constructed sets for various community organization productions.

A cofounder of the Janice Mason Art Museum in Cadiz, Fourshee was the first president of its board of directors. He has also served on the Pennyryle Arts Council board in Hopkinsville.

In addition to his personal interest in theater, Paul enjoys writing and drawing in various media.
