We need volunteers for Kentucky Crafted: The Market!

Dear Stakeholders in the Arts,

Arts Day in Kentucky has come and gone, and it was a huge success. If you are tracking the #kyarts50 hashtag on the Kentucky Arts Council's Twitter and Facebook pages, you can see that across the state, artists of all stripes were celebrating our special day.

A very heartfelt "thank you" to the legislators, artists, art organizations and visitors who came together at the Capitol on Feb. 11. Arts Day is all about you, and we are grateful for your contribution to its success.

This is also a good time to remind you that Kentucky Crafted: The Market is just around the corner. The Market will be 9 a.m.-7 p.m. March 7 and 10 a.m.-5 p.m. March 8 at the Lexington Convention Center. Admission is $10 for one day or $15 for both. On March 7, University of Kentucky men's basketball game ticketholders can purchase Market tickets for $7 by presenting their game ticket or ticket stub. Children 15 and under are admitted free to The Market with a paying adult.

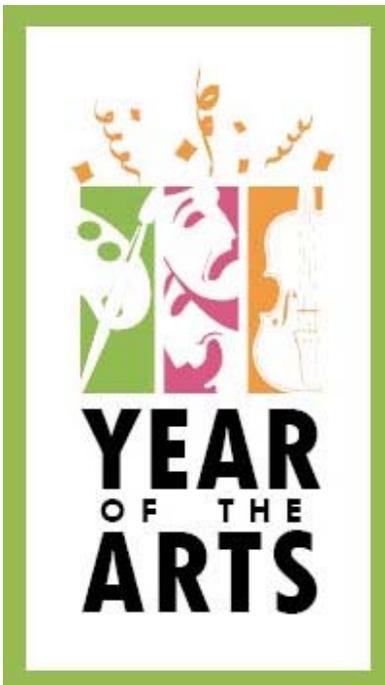

For more information on this and other features of The Market, download the official Kentucky Crafted: The Market program from the arts council's website.

In the meantime, enjoy a few of these memories from Arts Day in Kentucky!

Sincerely,

Lori Meadows
